Our Mission:

J.E. Smith Gallery specializes in contemporary painting, sculpture and photography, as well as work in ceramic and fiber art. The gallery is committed to showing a broad range of work across many disciplines and media by emerging artists, as well as mid-career. Once a year, the gallery will focus on developing a non-profit exhibition and hosting a benefit in conjunction with.

Tommy Womack and Will Kimbrough
(a.k.a. Daddy)

"Together, Kimbrough and Womack are the backbone of Daddy, a two- to five-piece band that delivers guitar mastery and rockin' licks along with tongue in cheek tunes."

July 31, 7:30pm, $15

Carla Gover

"Born and raised in Letcher County, Kentucky, Carla is an Appalachian musician of the first order, a veteran of Merlefest and Kerrville, full of spirit and wild mountain soul. "

August 28, 7:30pm, $15

Traveler's Dream

From Irish jigs and reels and French-Canadian voyageur songs, to sea shanties and Scottish ballads, Traveler's Dream (Denise Wilson and Michael Lewis) promises an evening of music both vibrant and timeless, deeply personal, and distinctly their own.
